

Thousands Watch Colorful Rodeo Parade

"HOWDY, PARDNER," SAYS Rodeo High Sheriff Paul Coates to stagecoach rider Eugene Biscailuz. Coates galloped to his position in the line of march after arriving 10 minutes late from Los Angeles.

Parade Marshal Robert Horton and Parade Hostess Barbara Stanwyck to their places in the parade. Hundreds of horsemen, horsewomen and horses—all of them gaily bedecked and colorful in the morning sunshine—drew a crowd estimated in excess of 10,000 to the Palm Canyon Drive line of march. Two-day rodeo swings into action at 2 p. m., today. (Desert Sun Photos)

Mounted Police Sponsor Rodeo At Polo Grounds

Bands played, spurs jingled and the biggest, most colorful parade in the 19-year history of the Palm Springs Mounted Police rodeo rode through the Village today, officially launching the two-day championship event.

An estimated 10,000 Villagers and parade-lovers from other desert communities jam-packed the line of march—from the El Mirador Hotel to Ramon Road via Palm Canyon Drive—to watch multitudes of beautifully-attired horses with their handsomely-dressed riders parade. Also in the parade were stage coaches, Indians, novelty riders and other spectacular entries.

A SPECIAL HIT with the throngs that lined the line of march were the bands that headed each division. Mar Vista High School, Perris Union High School, Sherman Institute, Redlands Junior High and Palm Springs High School all furnished musical aggregations that played continuously up and down Palm Canyon Drive. Pom Pom Corps accompanied some of the bands, adding additional excitement to the march.

Grand Marshal Robert Horton, Hostess Barbara Stanwyck, ex-Los Angeles County Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz, Ted Quinn, the Cody Sisters, Rodeo High Sheriff Paul Coates, Monte Montana and others joined the Palm Springs Mounted Police at the head of the parade.

OUTSTANDING RIDERS were featured throughout the parade and the trappings on the horses—many of them in silver and gold—occasioned oh's and ah's along the lengthy line of march. Jannie Hammond's silver-mounted, near the front of the parade, drew gasps from watchers and Nick's Riding Stable—final entry of the 124-name list—kept the crowd in its places until the end.

In between, many riders and many mounts stood out.

THE LERC RANGERS and the Ontario Mounted Police, together in Division One, both were well-received by parade fans. Harold and Thelma Essenberg, attired as an Apache chief and his squaw, brought both laughter and admiration from the fans.

The Palm Springs Mounted

Drill Team, a troupe of young but brilliant riders, kept the fans cheering as they rode through town, and Chetand Lois Kneel, a Spanish mounted pair, were reminiscent of the California heritage.

ART MILLER'S parade horse class entry was greeted by applause all the way down Palm Canyon Drive, and the Torrance Mounted Police also drew loud and continued acknowledgment.

Linda Downing, entered in the western girl under 10 category, drew accolades along the march and so did the Norco Western Riders. Timely and well-received were the Teen Angel Teens entry and the Bit and Spur Riding Club was also loudly applauded.

WOODY LOPEZ, Spanish costuming—of both himself and his horse—brought sighs from the more sentimental fans and won many admiring gazes as he rode down Palm Canyon Drive.

The Buckskin Wranglers were colorful and so was novelty rider Chick Hoover.

Many of the entries are expected to participate in the Grand March which precedes rodeo competition at 2 p. m., this afternoon. The rodeo will continue through tomorrow.

Proceeds of the events will go to aid the Palm Springs Mounted Police in the purchase of additional and replacement rescue gear.

Villager Joins Other Developers In Hawaii Hotel

A prominent Palm Springs resident has joined forces with a group of motion picture investors and realtors in planning a $10,000,000, 1,000-room in the center of Honolulu's storied Waikiki Beach.

Villager Clarence Brown is joining such other prominent Southern California figures as Joe Pasternak, Jack Wilens, Joe Auerback and Bill Tishman in the project.

Plans have been completed for a 26-story hotel, according to Horace B. White, president of the leasing Waikiki Development Co. The hotel would dwarf anything ever built on the islands.

Desert Sun Wins Two News Awards

Desert area residents knew it all the time, but today it became official.

The California Newspaper Publishers Association, in its annual awards meeting in San Francisco, today took a look at newspapers throughout the state and decided:

—THE DESERT SUN has the best sports page.
—The Desert Sun has the best sports coverage.
—The Desert Sun has one of the best news displays on its front page.

Entered in competition with newspapers of comparable circulation and size, The Desert Sun wowed the judges with "general excellence of make-up and content" on the front page.

THE PUBLISHERS singled out the sports section of the paper for extra accolades, however, deeming it the "best in the state" in its class.

Last year, the Sun's special tribute came in for the special tribute, being judged one of the best in its category in California.

Desert Sun Publisher, Ward Rissold, chairman of the CNPA Freedom of Information Committee, is in San Francisco attending the annual publisher's meeting.

Police Check Theft Report

Palm Springs police today are investigating the loss or theft of a suitcase containing approximately $700 worth of clothes and nearly $500 in cash from a room in an exclusive local club.

New York actor and writer Victor Cutler, 45, reported the suitcase missing to local police yesterday.

West Plans To Propose 4-Power Meet

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Western diplomatic experts today were expected to finish drafting a tentative Allied proposal calling on Russia to participate in a four-power foreign ministers conference this spring on the issues of Berlin, Germany, and European security.

Official informants said the draft of the note probably would be sent Monday to Paris for consideration by the 14-nation NATO council.

THE NOTE, IN effect, would constitute a rejection of Russia's Jan. 10 proposal for a 28-nation German peace conference to meet by March 10 in Warsaw and Prague. The Russians indicated they wanted to write a peace pact which would isolate and neutralize Germany and possibly perpetuate its division.

The draft to be completed today was hammered out by a "working group" of representatives of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany.

THE WESTERN Big Three and their German allies are in general agreement that the Big Four foreign ministers meeting should be held in the early part of May, officials said. But they declined to say whether the specific date would be suggested in the proposed draft.

Rally Protests Yacht, Airplane

MANILA (UPI) — The effigies of President Carlos P. Garcia's 2 1/2-million dollar yacht and million dollar presidential plane were reported burned tonight in a rally in central Quezon province.

A CONDEMNED BUILDING was destroyed by fire accidentally touched off by a man who was looking for a place to bed down for the night, firemen reported. Fire Captain Warren Empey said that the man accidentally started the blaze when he burned his hand with a match and dropped it on the floor. He was unable to bring the fire under control and with the exception of scorched eyebrows and hair, was uninjured. (Desert Sun Photo)

'No Differences,' Dulles, Adenauer

BONN, Germany (UPI) — U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said today they have no basic policy differences.

They said they are meeting to evolve specific methods for dealing with the Soviet challenge to free Berlin.

Dulles said on his arrival from Paris that "these thoughts about methods are still in a formative stage, but they will be firm, common and united."

Moscow said Dulles' visits to London, Paris and Bonn were a "desperate enterprise" to patch up western unity. It said the west was split on its approach to the Berlin crisis and the Germany problem.

'SUN' CAMERAMEN DO PHOTO-MAG JOB DURING WEEK

Desert Sun photographers this week triggered enough shutters to fill a pictorial magazine with photos of new resort activities.

Setting a new record in desert pictorial coverage, in the last five issues of The Desert Sun, from Tuesday through today's edition, some 120 news pictures appeared in the desert empire's only daily newspaper.

United Jewish Appeal Plans Started by Local Council

Leaders of the Palm Springs Jewish Community Council are today mapping plans for this year's United Jewish Appeal in the resort area.

The national UJA campaign opens with a Feb. 7 inaugural dinner at Miami Beach, which will be addressed by Abba Eban, Israel's ambassador to the United States.

Local UJA chairmen Zachary Pitts and Henry Birns expressed the hope that area residents "will respond to the current emergency" and meet the resort area quota.

Pitts explained that Israel is currently suffering through a mounting crisis "brought on by the sudden release of Jews from Eastern Europe."

Desert County

Leaders to Meet

Community leaders from the Coachella and Palo Verde valleys—totaling more than 75—will converge on the Chi Chi Restaurant here at 12:15 p. m., Tuesday, to map plans for creation of a Desert County.

The attendees will be asked to advance a planning program designed to produce a county in the desert area. Most of the citizens who have been invited to the meeting have gone solidly on record as favoring formation of a desert county.

Weather

Desert area forecast: Variable clouds today through Sunday. Few light showers in north portion. High temperatures 55 to 65 in upper valleys, 65 to 75 in lower valleys. Slightly cooler Sunday.

Yesterday's high 74, low 37.

Eastern City Records 160 Inch Total

United Press International
Winter weary Oswego, N. Y., dug out of a new snowstorm Saturday and weathermen said a blizzard which howled across Montana would batter the central plains states with new snow and cold by Sunday or Monday.

Winds hit gusts of 50 miles an hour in Oswego Friday night, died down and the snow ended after dumping eight to 12 inches on the ground.

THE NEW FALL, brought Oswego's winter total to more than 160 inches, surpassing a record set in 1925 and 1926.

The storm stranded scores of automobiles and forced 54 youngsters in a grammar school on the campus of Oswego State Teachers College to spend the night in their classrooms.

They breakfasted with their tired teachers and then waited for their parents to return them to their homes. The children, ranging in age from 5 to 15, appeared to enjoy the prolonged stay in school and several objected to leaving.

COLD WAVE WARNINGS were up for Montana before its snow-weary inhabitants could recover from Friday night's hit-and-run blizzard which howled across the state on 52-mile-an-hour winds.

The blinding curtain of snow stranded autos on drift-clogged highways, forced the evacuation of schools and even halted skiing.

Four carloads of Blackfoot Indians were trapped in drifts and sub-zero winds for three hours near Browning, Mont., in the northeastern corner of the state before they were rescued.

Frigid air came in the storm's wake, tumbling temperatures as much as 30 degrees. The Weather Bureau said nighttime readings would be as low as 20 below zero in the Northeast.

HUSBAND AIDS WIFE, TELLS JUDGE SHE'S NEVER WRONG

CHICAGO. (UPI) — A husband came to the aid of his wife with a statement that apparently stunned the judge into letting her off easy on a speeding charge.

"In 25 years of marriage I have never known my wife to be wrong," testified Elmer Morris, 48, Friday after his wife Della insisted the radar was wrong in clocking her car at 45 m.p.h. in a 25-mile zone.

"Absolutely amazing," said traffic court referee Joseph Wosik. "I have been married 17 years and my wife has never been right," he added, suspending a $10 fine.

YOUTH LEARNS FAMILY KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

NEW YORK. (UPI) — Eight-year-old Bobby Sullivan, who survived Tuesday's crash of an American Airlines plane, learned today that the rest of his family did not.

Big tears rolled down his small, round face when three uncles, choking back their own sobs, broke the news that his mother was not "in a room downstairs" in Flushing Hospital, as he had thought, but was dead, along with his two brothers and their father.

"But I saw mommy downstairs," Bobby protested when told that "God wanted your father and your mother and your two sisters."

As gently as they could, the uncles, Ed Murphy, 39; Donald Murphy, 34, and John O'Neil, 30, all of Chicago, tried to explain that although Bobby's mother, Mrs. Lorraine Sullivan, 40, had survived and been taken to the hospital with him, she lived only a few more hours.

Two Suffer Minor Injuries In Accident

Two Los Angeles men received minor injuries yesterday morning following an automobile accident in the 300 block on North Palm Canyon Drive at 5:45 a.m.

Police officer J. R. Wahlberg booked Daniel Robert Aikman, 48, driver of the car, on charges of drunk driving, and Aikman's passenger, Edward Joseph Meeks, 30, was treated at Desert Hospital for head injuries.

Aikman could not tell police what happened to cause the accident, but Wahlberg reported that the car left the street, went over the curb in front of the Sunset Courts and cut a city palm tree off at the sidewalk. The car carried the tree for 60 feet down the walk, missing store fronts and parking meters, and came to a stop against another palm tree near the Cork 'n Bottle. The downed tree was lying across the sidewalk.

Aikman received a cut across the back of his head and was treated at the police department.

SECOND UNIT OF SANDPIPER TO BE OPENED THIS WEEKEND

PALM DESERT — A western week grand opening of the second unit of the Sandpiper own-your-own garden apartments has been scheduled for this weekend in Palm Desert on Highway 111 at Palms-to-Pines Highway, George M. Holstein and Sons, builders, revealed.

Three furnished models by desert decorator Vee Nisley will be on display at the Sandpiper site where the second unit of the popular one-story garden units are nearing completion for the season.

Sales Manager Jack Enders pointed out that the first unit of the Sandpiper is sold out, but that the new unit on display today for the first time would be read for occupancy by March.

Unique in design and concept, the Sandpiper own-your-own apartments make living completely carefree for the buyer, Enders said. Each apartment includes built-in kitchen, living area, convertible bedroom-den and two full baths, and is built kitchen, living area, convertible bedroom-den and two full baths, and is built around pool, barbecue and play area.

The design offers complete privacy and freedom of upkeep as maid, linens and other resort hotel services are all included at the Sandpiper. Full price for the two bedroom, two bath units—complete with refrigeration—is $21,500 with excellent financing available, Enders pointed out.

Models are just off Highway 111 and Palms-to-Pines Highway in Palm Desert.

Player Stage Play

'Visit to a Small Planet' To Open Here Wednesday

A PlayerStage cast drawn from the best of local talent—most of them with many years of professional experience behind them—will be featured when Gore Vidal's "Visit to a Small Planet" visits El Paseo Theater here Wednesday.

Director Martin Beck yesterday announced that John Kramer, Lee Martin, Sam Fischer, Verkina Beck, Marianne Roberts, Mike Tomack, Bernie Winarski and Pablo Villa-Lobos have been assigned major roles in the prize-winning play.

KRAMER, NOW in his third year with the PlayerStage troupe, will take the role of the general who refuses to believe—even in the face of irrefutable proof—that the "Visitor" is actually from another world. Kramer gained nationwide attention when he was a member of the touring company of "Cyrano de Bergerac" with the later Walter Hampden. Martin assumes the role of the space visitor, Fischer portrays a TV commentator who has the rueful chore of quivering the unwelcome guest, Mrs. Beck becomes the empty-headed wife of the commentator and Miss Roberts and Tomack are cast as young lovers whose suit is aided and abetted by the spaceman.

WINARSKI IS CAST as the general's aide and Villa-Lobos also aids the plot. Villa-Lobos has reaped a growing following for his work with the Indio Masquers

Plaza Motors Given Franchise For GMC Trucks

Plaza Motors today opened its 22nd year in Palm Springs with the announcement that it has been awarded the exclusive resort area franchise for the complete line of GMC trucks.

Plaza General Manager N. K. MacDonald announced that the GMC truck line has been added to the ranks of Cadillac, Oldsmobile and Borgward automobiles sold by the city's oldest new car dealership.

MacDONALD SAID the award of the GMC franchise coincides with observance of Plaza Motors' 21st anniversary.

Owned and operated by Edgar McCoubrey, Plaza Motors was opened here in 1937 as a "one-desk, one-room, one-car agency," MacDonald said.

Today, Plaza Motors has expanded to more than 45,000 square feet of floor space with a staff of 30 employees. Plaza maintains a monthly stock of 50 new and used autos and services an average of 765 cars each month, according to sales manager Leo Athans.

THE ADDITION of the new truck line means that Plaza Motors is now able to offer commercial transportation ranging from one-half ton pickup trucks to 10-ton semi-trailers. The GMC line also includes school buses.

In addition to new and used car sales, Plaza Motors offers service for all makes of cars, under the supervision of service manager Bill Wilson and parts manager Van Harper.

For Scouters

Camp Training Conference Set

Annual camping training conference for Boy Scout officials has been scheduled for 7:30 p.m., Monday, in the Club House at the polo grounds, Dr. George M. Milkie, leader training chairman, said here today.

Topics will include such subjects as "Why Go Camping," "Tours and Moving Camps," and "The Scout Method of Camping." The course is regarded as a basic requirement for scoutmasters and committeemen. It is also regarded as timely, the doctor said, because of the approaching district and council camporees.

Adult scouters have an even more immediate need for the information, however, since the Joshua Tree Overnight Hike is slated for March 7-8 at the council camp there. The entire program of that event will provide a review of camping procedure.

Instructors at Monday's courses will be Melvin Hill, Earle Mitchell, Robert Hilery and Dr. Milkie.

New Members To Be Initiated By Auxiliary

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Initiation of four new members will be held by the American Legion Auxiliary No. 763 at 6:30 p.m., Monday, in Town Hall here.

The new members — Ila Campbell, Esther Armstrong, Mrs. Bell and Catherine Strickland — will be initiated following a pot luck dinner. Other members who have not been initiated will be inducted at that time, according to Auxiliary President Ruth Lambertson.

District 21 President Mary Williams has indicated that she may be on hand to aid in the Desert Hot Springs initiation.

READY TO GREET their desert friends and all Valley citizens in a brand-new furniture store on Highway 111—next to Cavanaugh Electric Company—in Indio are Bill and Lois Bollman. The

BOLLMAN OPENS NEW INDIO FURNITURE STORE TODAY

An old-timer in decorating and furnishing circles in the desert area opens a brand-new furniture store in Indio today — with many of his customers and friends expected to jam the new store for the celebration.

Bill Bollman, who had charge of such highly-regarded decorating jobs as the La Quinta Desert Club, the Sun Gold Guest Ranch, the professional offices of Hussey and Moore and many others, launches his new store with an all-day open house from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., today.

THE STORE is located on Highway 111 — next to the Cavanaugh Electric Company. Bollman said that fine furniture, chosen from such highly-reputed names as Drexel, Weinman, American, Brown and Saltzman and Simmons, will be featured in the store. Carpeting by James Lee will also be an exclusive feature. Outstanding accessories and a thorough home decorating service — free to Bollman customers — will also be provided.

"WE WILL INSTALL a patio display area for our outdoor furniture department," Bollman said, "and we'll give each customer an idea of how lighting and other ceiling fixtures will look by having them displayed in exactly their home setting within the store."

"If they'd like to see how a specific piece of furniture looks in their living room," he added, "they will be welcomed to take it home on approval."

BOLLMAN, WHO HAS had his own business in Los Angeles for the past decade and a half, has huge parking facilities at the rear of the all-new contemporary building designed by Phil Hussey and Jack Moore and constructed by Kretz and Wilson.

Refreshments will be served throughout the grand opening celebration which will continue until 9 p.m., tonight.

25 Participate in Mounted Drill Team's Overnight Ride

More than 25 riders participated in the Second Annual Overnight Ride sponsored by the Palm Springs Mounted Drill Team last weekend.

An additional 60 "tenderfeet" showed up for dinner at the Whitewater camp site, having driven from Palm Springs to the area by auto.

THE RIDERS MET early Saturday morning at Smoke Tree Stables and hit the trail for Whitewater, arriving there at about noon. After a quick lunch, the horsemen and horsewomen mounted up and headed into the canyons above Whitewater where streams run along side picturesque hills.

Girls of the Mounted Drill Team reported back to the camp site early and began preparation of a huge dinner for the hungry riders and their highway-borne guests.

AFTER DINNER, the entire assemblage sang songs — with ukelele accompaniment — until 9 p.m., when all hands turned in.

Extra blankets proved necessary during a chill night, but the riders didn't mind the morning cold. They dispatched a large breakfast and then resumed their riding in the Whitewater foothills.

AFTER LUNCH, the riders broke camp, packed their gear, and headed for Palm Springs.

In addition to the Palm Springs Mounted Drill Team, several other Villagers made the Whitewater trip. Included were Whitey Keeler, director of the team; Ellie Windhurst, Boo Hough, Billie Moseley, George Pope, George Tucker, Joe Butler, Fergie Ferguson, Joe Hefner, Gene Wohlgenuth and Janice Coble.

Early Spring Round-Up

WASHINGTON, D.C.—It's predictable that along around June, the Senate-House Democratic leaders will claim great accomplishments for the 86th Congress, and will cite the large numbers of legislative bills to prove the point. This is a regular annual occurrence, and it measures the amount of legislation rather than its quality.

Nobody can tell by counting the sheaves of paper that have passed through the printing presses whether a Congress has been good or bad. But here in February it is possible to make the calculated estimate that it will be among the least productive sessions that ever assembled and this is why:

LABOR LEGISLATION, perhaps the most needed of all, gives every sign of being a dud—noise without force. There are three kinds of Labor bills in competition. AFL-CIO would like to have the Taft-Hartley Act repealed, or, since that is impossible, emasculated.

Andrew Beimler, the AFL-CIO legislative director, let this cat out of the bag in his first day of testimony. Responding to a deft query by Senator Goldwater, Beimler admitted that "at the present time, we certainly would not support the Democratic (Kennedy - Ervin) bill without Title Six," the latter being the Taft-Hartley revision section.

THE EISENHOWER administration has submitted a reasonably good bill, but the Democrats and Liberal Republicans won't back it. This means it simply doesn't have the votes. Senator Goldwater may submit a very strong measure, probably including an anti-trust provision. It could not possibly get the votes to pass. What will pass, in all likelihood, is a very feeble law against crime and misfeasance, completely dodging the Labor issue in our times.

Military legislation, not quite as urgent as Labor because it is less neglected, will not advance much beyond its present status. The Administration, despite being under constant criticism, is very pleased with itself about our military posture.

Senator Symington, the chief Democratic critic, says this is false complacency that is based upon minimized estimates of Russian strength. But, as one of his Armed Services colleagues has told this reporter off-record, the only way Symington can be proved right is for the Russians to attack.

DEFENSE SECRETARY McElroy has developed a pretty unanswerable retort to the observation that he is spending less money on national defense even though the dollar is losing purchasing power and the Russians are increasing their ability to assault us.

McElroy says he has learned how to spend more effectively and does not need so many dollars. The country is in a mood to believe him rather than pay more taxes. There is little reason to think that this session will produce any improved military legislation.

CIVIL RIGHTS has been the main conversation piece in the early session. Everybody in Congress seems to have a bill or two. But the signs are that the heat is going out of the civil rights issue. The collapse of massive resistance to school segregation in Virginia is a shattering blow to all defenders of State sovereignty, and a tranquillizing victory for the other side.

If the Courts can do this, why should Congress act by passing unpopular force acts? We will probably get an extension of the present Civil Rights Commission and possibly a new bureau of Community Conciliation, but neither will alter the current situation. The new laws may be showy but will hardly be substantial.

INFLATION WILL remain, as it is now, a problem which Labor and Business will have to solve, or become engulfed. Nobody expects the President's budget to yield $7 billion in taxes so as to achieve a balance. But the President was right (and the rest of us wrong) last year at this time when he predicted a pattering out by spring of the recession. He could be right again. Still, the two things that could be called dramatic—a tax cut on one hand, a return to economic controls on the other—seem very remote.

Welfare and public works, including school and hospital construction, as well as more dams and airfields, are much in demand, especially by the many new Congressional members who came in by promising everything. But except for airfields, which the jet age demands, the spending may well be discouraged by presidential vetoes and by serious-minded public opinion.

THIS LEAVES foreign affairs a field in which Senator Humphrey is especially anxious to shine because of his eight-hour talkathon with Premier Khrushchev. Humphrey has been majoring in atomic disarmament, but he has no more chance than ever of finding a workable formula.

Sadly, it is World Communism rather than the American Congress which can be expected to dominate events in 1959. In early February, the signs are for a chatterbox session with humdrum results. All things considered, this could be the luckiest way to have it.

'Too Bad You Happened to Be Tied on Son'

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Lots of action
The next two weeks,
First it's cowboys,
And then it's sheiks.

This weekend in Palm Springs it's the Rodeo.

And next week in Indio, starts the annual Date Festival. Cowboys and sheiks, horses and camels.

RODEO WEEK naturally features horses and the Date Festival runs to camels.

I sat here for some time trying to figure out a verse to fit the occasion, trying to find what horses and camels have in common.

What rhymes with camels is smells but horses really don't—not much anyway—except when they run out after you put two bucks on them.

So I settled for weeks and sheiks.

LAST WEEK I wrote something about Dolores, 68, and J. Barney, 72, O'Hagen, active for years on the old-time vaudeville circuit.

How I enjoyed the impromptu vaudeville act they did at Shepherd's while visiting their daughter, May Branch, the organist there.

And recalled the old Orpheum in Los Angeles where I spent three happy hours every week while attending USC.

HAPPENED to mention that the Orpheum in those days was on Spring Street, between Second and Third.

So this week I get a letter from Claude Yerkes of 2390 Araby Road.

Seems that the reference to the old Orpheum started him reminiscing, too.

"YES," HE wrote, "the Orpheum was on Spring, between Second and Third. Next to it was the Imperial Cafe that ran from Spring to Broadway."

"I was an usher in the Orpheum. They furnished us a blue coat with brass buttons. And during intermissions, we passed ice water to the patrons."

"Before that, the Orpheum was at First and Main."

"Do you remember Al Levy's at Third and Main?"

Do I!

MY BAPTISM in what a reporter is supposed to do to get a news item stems from the Imperial Cafe. The owner, Harry Milling, had an old Stanley Steamer which he claimed was the fastest car in Los Angeles. He was going to prove it. And my editor, at the time, assigned me to ride with him.

We tore out Dalton, now North Broadway at almost 50 miles an hour.

Then the boiler blew up. I went back to work three weeks later.

AND, MR. YERKES, maybe you remember, too—After the Orpheum left First and Main, a man by name of Ferris Hartman took it over. They called it the Grand Theater and what wonderful musical shows they put on.

That was part of my USC curriculum, too.

Three hours a week, at night. Well, like the days say. When you start looking back, it's a sign that you are too old to be a wolf.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

Snow in the mountains, rain on the coast. Two trees fell in the canyon and are considered a fire hazard—"must be removed at the expense of property holder. See Section VI, County Property Code."

At my expense! I will not see the Property Code. I will see the County in—well, I will be awfully mad. I consider falling trees an Act of Nature. Remove the trees, County. Bill Nature.

NOT ALL IS gloom. Here is an engraved invitation from Mr. Conrad Hilton. I should come to Cairo and help him open the Nile Hilton.

"Transportation will be furnished via deluxe TWA Jetstream . . . Mr. Hilton is a sport. I accept this invitation and have made elegant plans for the opening. I have done research."

THE NILE is a famous river. Cleopatra floated down the Nile on a barge. She floated with Mark Anthony. The slaves were whipping up a little peacock sous cloche and such.

"Would you like a short snort before dinner?" said Cleopatra. "Certainly," said the romantic Roman. Make it light on the soda."

Cleopatra then poured him a small jolt of red. And, in it, she melted a few pearls. A first-class cocktail.

I AM A SENTIMENTAL about history. The other day I went down to the Mikimoto pearl people and bought some pearls.

"What size pearls?" said the pearl lady.

"Cocktail size, if you please."

"I am not sure what size that is. What do you intend to do with them?"

"I intend to drink them," I said. "I intend to get Mr. Conrad Hilton and float him down the Nile. If no barges are available, a rowboat will do. It is the spirit of the thing."

"WE WILL FLOAT down the Nile and I will mix him a martini. In it I will dissolve a pearl. I think I need about six pearls."

"It is only for a small cocktail party. No seconds."

The lady said she had never heard of pearls being used for such purpose. Also: "Mikimoto pearls are of first quality. They will not dissolve."

"MY DEAR PEARL lady," I said, "it is a matter of romantic history that Cleopatra served Anthony dissolved pearls. Have you ever served pearls in martinis? No? Well, then how do you know?"

"I am positive they will not dissolve," she said—but she looked worried. I had her on the run. "I don't think drinks do anything to pearls."

"THEY LEAVE GLASS rings on the top of the piano. Gin is rough on varnish. I imagine it would give a pearl something to think about."

The lady sold me six pearls and begged me to let her know the outcome.

I THINK I SHOULD get an asp. Cleopatra always had one of these serpents around the house.

Maybe you could rent an asp. Abbey Rents ought to rent asps. I should rent an asp and a dress suit. A friendly asp. I do not want one to bite me. Just an atmospheric asp.

When someone asks me to help open a hotel, I give my all. Cooperative.

I ONLY GET INVITED to Mr. Hilton's hotels once in awhile. I want to show him I am appreciative. What a nice fellow I am at heart.

The last one was the Beverly Hilton in Los Angeles. I heard that they had set up a dining room with no prices on the menu—it was that high class. But the dinner went for $78 a copy.

"Please don't print that!" cried the maitre d'hotel. "People will think it is expensive."

"DO YOU HAVE something a little cheaper?"

"We have an excellent salad luncheon for $12.50."

Well, I printed THAT. And later there was a great deal of talk that I had stabbed them in the back. However, I think if Mr. Hilton and I can get together over a couple of dissolved pearls, we can straighten the whole thing out.

EARL WILSON:

Executive

NEW YORK—The Great Relaxer, Perry Como, got excited about something the other day: resting.

Perry, the only tycoon who goes to a shiny new Park Av. office in slacks and sports shirt, had his chin in his hand as he sat at a glistening glass desk in the smartly decorated offices of his corporation, "Roncom."

"Wow!" I exclaimed, surveying the splendor of the new setup. "I used to interview you in that rehearsal hall over the Horse's Tail Saloon on 8th Av."

"That was better, too," he nodded. "This makes me feel too much like an executive."

But he is an executive! It takes 230 people to put on that TV show. The Christmas liquor bills run into thousands. There's a stream of pretty gals at desks in the new office, an Oriental decor, little cubicles where the Roncom coms and noncoms plot ways to make more wealth for the Roncomodore, Perry.

"Every year about this time," I said, "you talk to NBC about working less next season."

"Funny," smiled Perry, "I never come out ahead on those talks. I don't say the right things."

Actually, while Perry talks about cutting off maybe a month's shows next year, he's voluntarily doing 40 rather than 39 this year—including a special to help build Roncom into a big deal like Desilu in California.

"It's in March sometime—on a Tuesday. We don't even know what we're going to do yet," Perry elaborated—if you could call it that.

"Was then that we got to the resting part."

"We go down to our place on Jupiter Isle, Florida, about every other weekend," Perry said. "I thought it was a lot of talk when they said there was good fishing there."

"But it happened the other weekend right in front of our house. 'Bluefish! Thousands of them. It was cold. I got a sweater and pants on and I'm up to my chin in water. I got a fly rod and I'm having a ball. It was really like catching fish in a barrel."

"Boon, the natives got a whiff of it, and suddenly nobody's fishing anywhere but in front of our house!"

By taping a couple of shows, Perry's hoping to have a winter vacation. He's considered going to Palm Springs where he could golf with his buddy, Phil Harris.

"Phil's reason enough to go anywhere," Perry said.

"I played golf there for about four or five years as Phil's guest at the club. I finally said, 'I better join this club.' Phil said, 'You don't have to join! I said, 'I'd better join.' Phil said, 'So join already!'"

"So I joined the club."

"So I haven't been there since."

One other subject stirred Perry up—his children's reaction to his visit with President Eisenhower.

"My daughter, Terry, who's 11, is a real native character," he said. "She told Dave, who's 13, 'Daddy's going to get the Medal of Honor from President Ike.'"

"Dave said, 'He can't do that! You have to do something for the Army.'"

"Terry answered him back, 'Oh, yes you can! I saw it in the movie 'Yankee Doodle Dandy.' The actor who got it was George M. Kovacs!'"

Perry found Ike almost as relaxed as he is. Perry told me he was sure he was too busy to talk to him about golf.

"Oh, I'm not too busy," the President answered.

"What's your handicap?" Perry then asked him. "Enough," the President replied. "I saw one of his cards and his score was about 80. That's pretty good . . . golf!" Perry emphasized, "never saw such an organization as in the White House," Perry said. "I'd asked if I could have a picture . . ."

"Suddenly the door flew open and it looked like 50,000 cameramen shot in. Then the whole place lit up like a movie premiere. Then Jim Hagerity said 'All right, boys. I looked around and the cameramen were all gone like they'd dropped through the floor.'"

"But it's kind of an eerie feeling. Somebody takes your coat and hat and you know it's a Secret Service man . . ."

"You're going to be 47 this year," I said to Perry as I was about to leave.

"Forty-six . . . no . . . you're right . . . 47!" he said. "I feel like I still got a few seasons left in me."

His intimates say that in his fourth year of Saturday TV he's proved he can throw a comedy line—he can ad lib. He tells jokes at rehearsals as Jackie Gleason or Milton Berle might.

"See that thing there—that color TV set," Perry said, nodding across the room. "That's a decorator's dream!" And it was.

"Only thing wrong, you can't get color TV on it. Seems they switch on from the side and that fancy setup doesn't have room for a side switch!"

Perry, RCA's great argument for color, can't get color. "But it's better than cutting hair," Perry said.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

In '93 Per Cent Club'

HOLLYWOOD—Rick Nelson's income tax auditor tipped the youngest of the Nelsons that in his 1958 wages for TV, movies (he played John Wayne's sidekick in "Rio Bravo"), recordings and personal appearances have rocketed him into Hollywood's exclusive "Ninety-three Percent Club."

Meaning the 13-year-old pays 93 cents of every buck he makes to Uncle Whiskers and keeps only seven cents.

Does Rick consider himself a "valuable property?" Not so's you'd notice. He cracked up his sportscar so badly last week in a "demolition race" with some of his old Hollywood High chums that they had to crash through the windshield to pry him loose from the wreck. So now the lad has switched to a less dangerous sideline—bull-fighting!

ACADEMY OF Television Arts and Sciences will telecast its annual Emmy Awards show May 6, a month to the day after the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences telecasts, its annual Oscar presentations. Same network, too: NBC-TV.

Word came down from Jerry Wald, producer of the April 6 Oscarcast that there's to be no repetition of last year's "folksy" publicity about how Joanne Woodward made the dress in which she appeared to receive her best-actress Oscar.

"It'll be strictly a New Look this time," Wald told me. "Glamor will be the byword, with over 20 of our top movie beauties gownned and jewelled to the teeth. Hollywood should look its best when all the world is looking!"

THAT SONGSTRESS who accompanied Bob Hope on his Christmas Jambet went to Los Angeles Superior Court and had her name changed legally—from Molly Beachboard to Molly Bee.

It was Rod Sterling's hard luck that Playhouse 90 beamed his "Velvet Alley" on the same night that a television program beamed a real man facing a real Cuban firing squad with stoic dignity. I enjoyed the technical aspects of the show but could stir up nothing but crocodile tears over the "sneaky" of a TV scripter who stalked off sobbing into a blizzard because of his heartbreak over earning $250,000 a year!

JOHN Lewis, incidentally, was so impressed with the "Alamo" acting of Jack Klugman that he has signed Klugman as the villain in his next Paramount picture. Klugman's the guy who played the agent "axed" by Art Carney, as the "tortured" writer.

THEY'RE MGM - TVamping Leslie Nielsen the played Carney's drunken producer in "Alley" to star in the studio's new private-eye series, Johnny Eager, based on the old Bob Taylor movie.

Her sponsors ordered 16 new Annie Oakley segments from little Miss Sure Shot, Gail Davis, and Gail will be pretty busy because she's also scheduled to marry Radio Corp. of America exec Dick Pierce when his divorce becomes final this year.

LA STATION KMPC apologized to the LA Police Department last week when one of its newscasters let slip the fact that police were "stalking out" a liquor store on Hollywood Boulevard after a pickup - murder in the vicinity. Spectators who rushed to the scene got rushed right off by the cops, explaining the newscast sent them running. "Unfortunate error," murmured the station execs, "but we got the tip from an anonymous informant."

"No sweat," came the answer from the LAPD, "but don't let it happen again."

Bob Rockwell, an old classmate of mine from the University of Illinois and Eve Arden's erstwhile leading man in the Our Miss Brooks series, is screen testing for Cary Grant's old spot in the Screen Gems series based on "Mr. Blandings Builds His Dream House."

ONE HAND WASHES the other for Roy Rogers. He'll beam his third "non-Dinah Shore" Chevy Show April 25. Roy hasn't made any movies lately but his other two "Shore-replacements" (last Nov. 9 and Jan. 4) were so successful that he's been booked for a 45-day tour this summer that guarantees his his business manager, Art Rush, tells me a gross profit of $1,116,000.

Biggest headaches for Dave Haft and Mike Mesheff, producers of Milt Caniff's Steve Canyon series, is getting actors to report to work with GI haircuts. "Most of them yell that they're working on a Western next week," Dave tells me, and refuse to go to barber. It's no joke, although I can't say I blame them. There ARE more Westerns on the beam than GI shows.

Chuckles in the News

Missed at Last

BITHA, Israel (UPI) — Mrs. Leah Shmuel told police her husband has been missing for five months. Asked why she didn't report his disappearance sooner, she explained: "I didn't miss him until now."

Button, Button . . .

GE, Italy (UPI) — Thieves are in for a big surprise when they open the three suitcases they stole from salesman Dante Robecchi's car.

They contain 50,000 sample clothing buttons.

Start at the Top

EFFINGHAM, Ill. (UPI) — Mayor Paul Taylor today advised aspiring office-holders to start right at the top—and run for dogcatcher.

The mayor's job pays $800 a year, the dogcatcher's $1,200.

Car Drives Drunkenly

SANTA MONICA, Calif. — (UPI) —Garth D. Shannon, arrested for drunken driving Thursday when police saw his 1903 Oldsmobile weaving erratically, blamed it all on the car.

"It's the way she drives—sort of jerking and swerving," Shannon explained of the ancient tiler-steered vehicle.

Iceles Stop Train

BISHOPTON, England — (UPI) —Iceles stopped a heavy locomotive Thursday night.

Railwaymen said the iceles hanging over the mouth of a tunnel were so big that the engine was forced to stop after being hit and wait 35 minutes until they were cleared from the track.

Vetoes Own Bill

ATLANTA, (UPI) — Gov. Ernest Vandiver has vetoed a bill which he proposed to the Georgia General Assembly.

Vandiver explained he had had a change of heart about the measure, which provided for a change in the State Highway Department.

No Poems, Please

COLUMBUS, Ohio, (UPI) — The poets at the Ohio Penitentiary are getting out of hand. The prison newspaper has asked its readers:

"Please do not contribute poems . . . we will accept articles or items of general interest to our readers, but no poems, please."

On Highway Route

Brown Asked to Intervene

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Chamber of Commerce officials have appealed to Gov. Edmund G. Brown for aid in halting construction of a proposed Dry Morongo Canyon highway.

In a letter to the governor, Dr. James Compton, chamber roads and highways committee chairman, asked for aid in securing a special State Highway Commission investigation.

THE LETTER, a continuation of a year-long campaign to route the highway to the high desert through Little Morongo Canyon, suggested that "an unbiased investigation" might convince the state that Dry Morongo is an unfeasible route.

Dr. Compton stated that "the people of the high and low desert communities favor a four-lane express highway from the Indian Avenue overpass at Highway 99 through Little Morongo."

HE SAID THAT the highway commission "ignored" requests for a public hearing and charged that the commission accepted recommendations of district engineer C. V. Kane to follow the Dry Morongo route despite heavy public opposition.

"We feel that the State Highway Commission should manifest enough interest to at least order a private, unbiased investigation by competent engineers," Dr. Compton wrote.

HE REPEATED opposition charges that Dry Morongo is a dangerously curving route, often blocked to traffic by the mud and debris of flood.

Dr. Compton asked Governor Brown "for any consideration you might find expedient to help us in this matter."

New Student Guidance Plans Launched at Indio

INDIO — Two new student planning and guidance programs opened at Indio High School this week. The programs include meetings of parents, students and counselors to determine curriculum needs for the student body.

THE SECOND involves a visitation program, wherein youngsters from eighth grade classes in all Indio schools will spend a day at the high school.

Assistant Principal Alex A. Alexander said the counseling program involves studies of student test results and discussion of student abilities for the purpose of determining curricular programs next fall.

PARENTS AND students will meet with counselors from 7 to 10 p.m., Tuesday and Wednesday evenings to conduct the guidance conferences.

In the visitation program, eighth graders from eight classes will be paired off with high school freshmen to get a first-hand view of high school curriculum and routine, Alexander said.

Golden Spa Ball To Be Held at B-Bar-H Ranch

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Members of the Desert Hot Springs Women's Auxiliary of the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation will be hostesses for the Golden Spa Ball, to be held at 8:30 p.m., tonight, in the B-Bar-H Ranch here.

Special guests will be the entire corps of Teen Angel Teens with Teen Angel Diane Copass reigning. Members of the newly-organized Palm Springs auxiliary are expected to be on hand for the event which will endeavor to raise additional funds to benefit the foundation.

Tickets and additional information will be available by calling general chairman Mrs. Billie Thompson at FA 9-5397.

Premature

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — (UPI) — Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Preston arrived at a downtown hotel restaurant here, found seats, ate dinner and then settled back for the speeches.

Only then did they realize that the $4-a-plate banquet for which they had purchased tickets wasn't scheduled until the next day.

Priest and Sister in Reunion

REUNITED AFTER 22 YEARS are Father A. G. Edwards and his sister, Mrs. Florence Chopik, of Orange, N.J. Father Edwards, pastor of Palm Desert's Sacred Heart Catholic Church, greeted his sister, whom he last saw in 1937, at Palm Springs Airport as she arrived for a month-long visit. (Desert Sun Photo)

Separated 22 Years By 'Fate'

Father A. G. Edwards, pastor of Palm Desert's Sacred Heart Catholic Church, paced the airport passenger ramp, eagerly waiting to close a gap of 22 years.

"I haven't seen her since 1937," Father Edwards mused, squinting at the landing lights of a big Bonanza Airlines transport. "But I'm sure I'll know her."

FATHER EDWARDS was waiting for his sister, Mrs. Florence Chopik, of Orange, N.J., to land at Palm Springs Airport.

She was beginning a month's visit with the brother she hasn't seen for more than two decades. "I was in the Army from 1932 until 1949," the retired chaplain explained. "I was always one place while she was in another."

Father Edwards recalled that he has visited other members of his family (he has three brothers and six sisters) during the years since he left the family's Harrisburg, Pa., home.

"WE ALL TRY to meet there occasionally," he said watching the four-engine transport lumber down the runway. "But Florence and I never seem to be there at the same time."

Father Edwards and his sister correspond frequently, however. Both agreed that it was high time for a reunion.

"I haven't seen any pictures of her for years," he said. "But I'm sure I'll be able to recognize her."

He grinned and pointed to his nose: "We have the same kind of family nose."

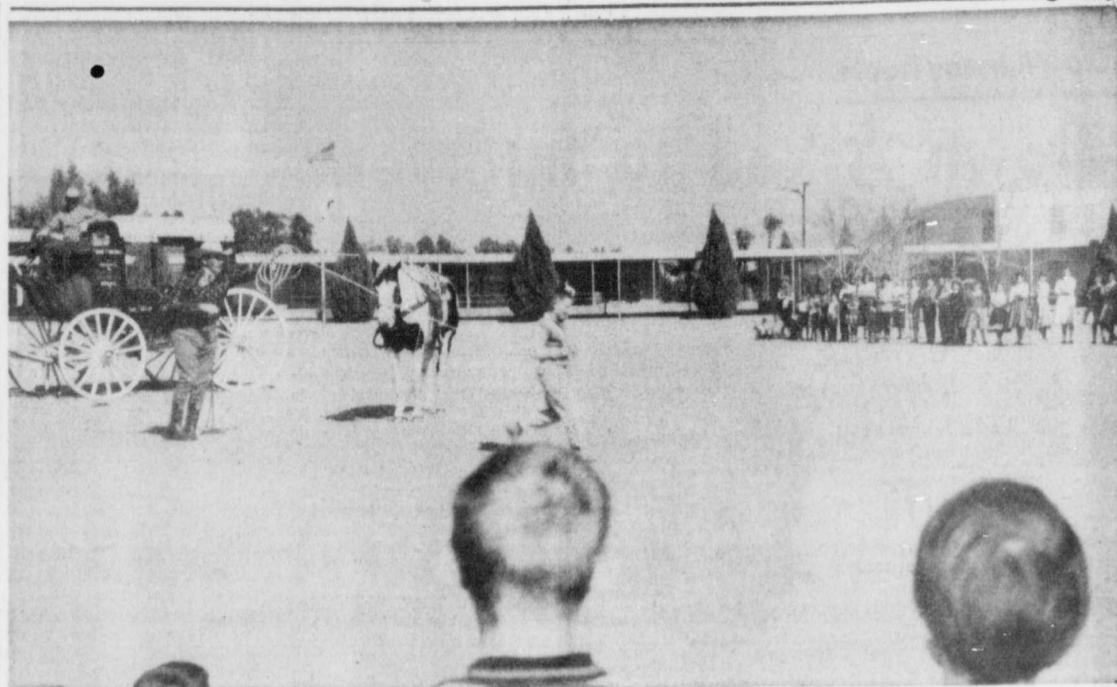

NOW THE BONANZA air ship had landed. Father Edwards glanced at the passengers and stepped quickly towards a stout, smiling, grey-haired woman.

They greeted each other with a quick, warm embrace and headed for Father Edwards' car. "It's just wonderful to see you again," said Mrs. Chopik, stepping back to look again at her brother. "It's just wonderful."

Two New Directors Named To Desert Braemar Board

DESERT BRAEMAR—Two new directors have been elected to the board of Desert Braemar, Inc., it was announced here yesterday by owners of the 100-apartment cooperative development.

The new two directors are Harold Quinton and E. H. Davidson. Quinton, chairman of the board for the Southern California Edison Co., is also a director of many other Southland business, educational and civic organizations.

Davidson, an attorney, also has business interests in his home town of Lorraine, Ohio.

Election of officials to head Desert Braemar throughout 1959 will be held shortly, the directors said. Committees for various activities at the apartment development will also be established at that time.

Top Ranking Cowboys in Weekend Contest Here

Event Draws Best Horsemen In the Nation

Mel Potter, the college-trained cowboy who is the new rodeo season's top contender for the calf roping championship, headlines the field of ranking rodeo contestants who are back in Palm Springs this weekend for the Palm Springs Mounted Police Rodeo.

Potter, a graduate from the University of Arizona in Tucson, got a running start for the 1959 world's calf roping championship when he won the first day money at the season's first rodeo in Odessa, Texas early in January, went on to win his event at the National Western Rodeo in Denver two weeks ago.

A NATIVE of Wisconsin Rapids, Potter has spent his winters since a youngster in Arizona because of his asthma. He began taking rodeo seriously while a student at Arizona U.

An event specialist, Potter, will compete in calf roping only here.

Top seeded entry in the bareback riding again this year will be John Hawkins, Twain Heart, Calif., top bareback rider of the Mounted Police Rodeo last year.

HAWKINS has been runner-up for the world's championship in the bareback event the past two years in a row, losing the title two years ago by a margin of only $18 out of $15,000.

Front-running candidates for the all-around cowboy honors at the rodeo here will be veteran Lawson Fore, Riverside, who will compete in saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling and calf roping.

FORE, AN ACTIVE rodeo contestant of 25 years, placed second in the saddle bronc here last year and finished third in steer wrestling in 1956.

Other top-seeded entries include Bob G. Jones, Merced and Don Adams, Newhall, Calif., who will be up in bareback bronc riding and bull riding.

Call Baseballers For Drill Session At Polo Grounds

First game for the CVSL baseball team, the Palm Springs hard ball outfit sponsored by the Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association, will be played at the Polo Grounds on February 22, according to Howard Haddock, city recreation superintendent.

Manager John Marinko of the local team, called for another practice session tomorrow afternoon at the Polo Grounds at 2 p. m. Marinko said that any one who wants to get into the sport should report to him tomorrow at the practice session.

Rigney Says Giants to Be Right in Contention

By HAL WOOD, United Press International

PHOENIX, Ariz. — UPI — The San Francisco Giants, miracle team of the 1958 National League race, have a deal cooking that will bring them another front-line pitcher.

"If it goes through," says manager Bill Rigney, "We'll be right up there in contention."

Rigney, in Phoenix to play some golf prior to the opening of spring training only 10 days away, expects the deal to be consummated within the next day or two.

"TO BEAT MILWAUKEE," he says, "you have to have at least three men who are front-line pitchers, men who can go 200 to 250 innings per year."

"In Johnny Antonelli and Jack Sanford we have two men who can do it. We need one more. Maybe young Mike McCormick, who is only 20, will work out. But I think he needs a little more maturity."

RIGNY BELIEVES his infield is set with Cepeda at first; transferring of Daryl Spencer from short to second; putting Andre Rodgers, up from the Pacific

Marines Edge Laurye's 38-35

Twentynine Palms Marine basketball quintet nosed out Laurye's Steak Ranch team, leaders in the City Basketball League, 38 to 35 in a hot ball game last night in the high school gymnasium floor.

The Marines got away to a 13-8 lead in the first quarter but Laurye's came back in the second period to draw within two points. At half time it was 22-20 for the Marines.

Laurye's picked up another one-point gain in the third and the two teams went into the final period with the Marines leading 30-29. The fourth quarter was a hectic one with both teams going all out but the visitors tanked two more than the local lads and took it all by a score of 38-35.

Charley Brown was high man for Laurye's with 12 points and Hank Prout of the visitors tanked 13 to lead his team and be high scorer for the game.

The score:

Indians Blister San Jac 71-54

Paced by 26 Points By Lewis.

Paced by Joe Lewis who tanked 26 points, Palm Springs Indians Friday night blistered San Jacinto 71 to 54 in a Riverside County League game on the losers' floor. It was another one of those "come-from-behind" efforts by the Tribe which trailed 27-34 at half time.

BUT THE BRAVES came back strong after intermission to score 44 points in the final half—20 in the third period and 24 in the last. The game was infested with fouls and the Indians garnered many of their points from the free throw line.

Stan Cirata had 11 points and Dick McFarland 10 to add to Lewis' sparkling showing.

THE VICTORY kept the Indians in a third-place tie with Elsinore

Famed Swimmer Now Performing At Western Hills

"Corky," known professionally as the Polar Bear, world's champion long-distance swimmer, will be presented for three performances this weekend at Desi Aranz' Western Hills Hotel, this noon, tonight and tomorrow noon.

Totally blind and weighing 300 pounds, "Corky" has appeared in many aquatic shows. He will do his famous "chair act" at the hotel. In this he is tied to a chair and pushed off the diving board. Under water he shakes off his bonds.

He is known as the "human cork" for his ability to eat and drink while floating in the water.

NOTICE OF SALE ON EXECUTION REAL PROPERTY
V. O. MARSHETT, Plaintiff, vs. MARVIN W. SCOTT JR., Defendant
CONSTABLE'S SALE
Under and by virtue of a Writ of Execution issued out of the Municipal Court, Santa Ana-Orange, of the County of Riverside, State of California, dated the 22nd day of January A. D. 1959, in the above entitled action, (and directed to the Constable of the County of Riverside, State of California), where plaintiff, obtained a judgment against Marvin W. Scott Jr., the above named defendant, on the 8th day of November, 1958, for the sum of Two Hundred Sixty & 45/100 ($260.45) dollars, and costs and counsel fees amounting to dollars, I have this day attached and levied upon all the right, title and interest and estate of the above named defendant, Marvin W. Scott Jr. in and to the following described real property, situate, being and being in Palm Desert:

Less Power But More Accuracy, Wallgren's Idea

Former Governor Mon Wallgren of Washington, newly-elected president of the Shadow Mountain Golf Club, is of the opinion that shorter golf courses will be the standard for the desert area in the future.

He pointed out that many of the retired men and women who make up the bulk of golfers in the desert area would like to play the game daily.

WITH THIS in mind, the new golf course at Shadow Mountain will be a little shorter than many. "The good golfer will make it in about two and one-half hours," he said.

"That is obviously less tiring, less time-consuming and that is what a man needs when he gets a little older."

GOV. WALLGREN added that the approximate 5500 yards of the course will not make it easier to play. On the contrary, he said, the course is even a bit trickier.

"Golfers who have lost the ability to hit the long ball will find that while this course will require less power, it will call for more accuracy."

INGENUOUSLY PLANNED and "pin-pointed," the new course slated for Shadow Mountain Club, will feature intricate contours, dog-legged fairways and well-trapped greens. It will have two regulation par five holes and the average golfer can reach the par four holes with a drive and iron.

A membership drive is now underway at the Shadow Mountain Club. Set up as a non-profit corporation, each member will be an equity member, owning a non-assessable share in the corporation with full voting rights.

Ortega Wants 'Good Money' Fight in West

NEW YORK, UPI—Welterweight contender Gaspar Ortega, heartened by a timely smile from Lady Luck, wants a "good-money" fight in the Far West as soon as his left brow heals after Friday night's upset, one-point, split-decision victory over Rudel Stitch.

"Now that my luck has changed," said the lanky Indian from Tijuana, Mex., "I want a good-money fight with either Denny Meyer in Oregon or with Art Aragon at Los Angeles."

Ortega, weighing 146½ pounds to 144 for Stitch of Louisville, Ky., came from behind at Madison Square Garden, with blood streaming from his left brow, and took a nevelash verdict—after losing four of his last seven bouts on disputed decisions.

Stitch, an aggressive, solid-punching Negro who was favored at 2-1, threatened to stop Ortega in the early going; but Ortega came on with a smashing body attack in the second half of the bout to salvage victory. It was a brilliant, bruising fight.

The defeat spoiled Rudel's Garden debut.

Ortega, 25, suffered such a badly gashed left brow in the third round that he was suspended to-day for 30 days in New York state, to give it time to heal.

Stitch suffered a slight cut on his right brow in the fourth round.

Referee Al Berl's scoring decided the verdict when the two judges had disagreed. Judge Frank Forbes favored Ortega on a rounds basis, 6-4; but judge Tony Castellano had 26-year-old Stitch ahead, 5-4-1.

Referee Berl gave each five rounds but then resorted to New York's point system and scored 7-6 in favor of Ortega.

A poll of ringside writers showed nine for Gaspar and three for Stitch, who suffered his fifth defeat in 22 starts. It was Ortega's 48th win in 64 bouts.

Horizon Park to Be Shuffleboard Semi-Finals Site

Semi-finals in the third annual city-wide shuffleboard tournament will be held February 23, at Horizon Trailer Village starting at 2 p. m. It was announced today.

Lefroy Thomas, president of the Trailer Interpark Shuffleboard association, will be the referee. Austin Snyder is general chairman of the tournament. He and Howard Haddock, city recreation superintendent, will announce the site of the finals, set for February 25, later.

Snyder said that more than 200 entries were received for the tournament, well over any previous entry list.

Little Heads Phoenix Open 10 Under Par

Shoots Sensational 63 to Pace Field By Two Strokes

PHOENIX, Ariz. UPI — Lonesome Gene Littler, the man who was supposed to succeed to the Snead-Hogan throne but who has been a well-paid non-winner in recent campaigns, finally has come back with the game that made him famous just a few years back.

The blond, 28-year-old poker-faced swinger from San Diego is leading the $17,500 Phoenix Open golf tournament as the third round gets under way today with a phenomenal 36-hole score of 130. That's 10 strokes under par for the distance and good enough to give him a two-stroke lead over the field.

"THE PUTTS haven't gone in for me like this in several years," said Gene after his brilliant 63 Friday to tie the course record. "I've changed my swing a bit and seem to be hitting the ball better than usual off the tee and on the fairway."

His closest competitors are a pair of 23-year-olds, Joe Campbell, of Knoxville, Tenn., and John McMullin, of Alameda, Calif. They had 132 totals with McMullin getting a 67 and Campbell 68.

Marty Furgol, Lemont, Ill., and Jerry Magee, the Canadian from Toronto who led after the first round, were tied 134 after Furgol came in with his second straight 67. But Magee skied from 65 to 71.

BEST ROUNDS Friday aside from Littler's were 65 posted by Art Wall, the hot-putter from Pocomo Manor, Pa., and Al Besse-link, Grossinger, N. Y. Wall leaped into contention with a 135 score to tie with Dave Ragan, Chattanooga, Tenn., and young Tommy Jacobs, Whittier, Calif. Besse-link had a 136 total and tied him with Paul Harney, Auburn, Mass.; Bill Johnston, Provo, Utah; Himmv Clark, Huntington Park, Calif.; Bill Casner, Apple Valley, Calif.; and Masters champion Arnold Palmer, Latrobe, Pa.

Flying Saucers Sighted Over Desert

Bob Barker, public relations man for El Dorado Palms Estates, adjoining Indian Wells Golf Course, sighted flying saucers yesterday. Investigation revealed not only saucers, but plates also were flying. They are being thrown at Sir Reginald by Lady Pamela. Seems that Lady Pam insisted upon a four bedroom home abutting El Dorado Golf Course, while Sir Reggie was holding out for a three bedroom adjoining the Indian Wells Course. Remember—you needn't fight. We have many choices. Simply drive out, or call your realtor today.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: I had to quit school because I'm having a baby and am not married. The father is in the Navy and we still don't know if he'll marry me or not. We hadn't gone together very long, but I thought I loved him. I'm not a tramp, Abby. He's the only boy who has ever touched me. Why is it when a person needs friends the most, everybody turns against them? My girlfriends say they still like me but their parents won't let them associate with me because it might ruin their reputations. So I sit alone all day. We have no money to send me to a Home for Unwed Mothers, so I have to stay here and face the shame. I am 17 and wish I were 70 so I could go to my Eternal Rest. DESERTEDEAR DESERTEDE: There are Homes for Unwed Mothers who will welcome with open arms anyone without one penny. Get in touch with your Family Service Assn. at once. I've heard from many girls who have been in your

DEAR ABBY: I am a Pre-Med student and have been going with this girl for about six months. I've told her I love her and she's told me she loves me, but I can't consider getting married for a long time yet. This girl keeps insisting that I give her an engagement ring. I told her I couldn't afford a big diamond, but she says it's not the diamond that counts, it's the thought. Any advice?

Visiting Pastor Due at Religious Science Church

The Church of Religious Science, with services at the Village Theater at 11 a.m. Sunday, will hear the Rev. Dr. Mark T. Carpenter on the subject: "Expanding Your Experience."

Dr. Carpenter is visiting the Church of Palm Springs in his official capacity as administrator of the Department of Affiliated Churches. He is the first of prominent guest speakers to fill the pulpit prior to the selection of the new minister.

He will meet with the board of trustees to make necessary arrangements for continuance of the local activities, prior to the worship service.

Meditation music, played by Con Maffie, begins at 10:45. Visitors are invited.

Dr. Johnson To End Revival Series Sunday

Dr. Jimmie Johnson culminates his week-long revival here Sunday with two morning services and an evening sermon scheduled for the Community Church of Palm Springs.

Rev. Johnson, who has been aided musically by tenor soloist Edward Lyman, will also close out his highly successful revival efforts here with a Youth Rally at 7:30 p.m., Saturday in the church.

The services Sunday will be held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. and at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday school classes will be held at 9:30 a.m. and a children's church will be held at 11 a.m. A nursery is also provided by the church at both services.

The church is located at Cahulla and Baristo roads.

There are more than 300 flammable liquids in use today.

Noted Scout Official Set As Kiwanis Club Speaker

Dr. Gerald P. Lawrence, whose belief in the Boy Scout movement has provided the impetus for organization of innumerable troops throughout the United States, will discuss the impact of Scouting here for members of the Palm Springs Kiwanis Club at 12:15 p.m., Tuesday, in the Chi Chi Restaurant.

Rev. McClain To Preach Twice

PALM DESERT — "Person to Person" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Warren C. McClain at the two Sunday worship services 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. at the Palm Desert Community Church.

The Sacrament of Infant Baptism will be administered during the 11 a.m. service.

Albert Young will sing "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say" by Rathburn.

The Christian Youth Fellowship will hold their regular meeting at 7 p.m.

The Women's Association will meet at the church house at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday morning, to sew and roll bandages for the Leper colonies.

Talk on Christian Civilization Set By Rev. Arnold

CATHEDRAL CITY — Rev. James W. Arnold will talk on "Christian Civilization" at the 11 a.m. Sunday service of Cathedral City Community Church.

Rev. Arnold's sermon topic is "Pilgrim or Prisoner?" The Youth-Adult Choir will sing the anthem at the morning service.

Sunday school begins at 9:30 a.m. for all age groups and a nursery will be open during the morning service. The Senior High Westminster group meets at 7 p.m.

Chaplain to Give Sermon

Tomorrow, Quinquagesima Sunday, the 11 p.m. morning prayer service at St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church will be read by the Rev. David L. Soltan, retired chaplain of the University of Redlands. Dr. Soltan will also celebrate the 8 a.m. Holy Communion.

Family service at 9:15 a.m. will be followed by Church School classes for all ages, nursery through adults.

This coming Wednesday, Feb. 11, is Ash Wednesday, which along with Good Friday, is one of the major fast days of the church year. Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of the Lenten season, a time devoted to prayer and devotion in preparation for the feast of Easter. Services at St. Paul's on Ash Wednesday will include Pentecostal Office and Holy Communion at 10 a.m., and Pentecostal Office and Litany at 7:30 p.m.

Prayer Day To Be Observed

PALM DESERT — "The World's Day of Prayer" will be observed by the Women's Association of the Palm Desert Community Church, on Friday at 2 p.m. at the church house.

This will replace their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Kincaide, Jr., will be in charge of the program and Mrs. Clifford Young is in charge of music.

About 1,400 shopping centers were planned for construction in the U.S. in 1958 and 1959, more than half as many as were in existence at the beginning of last year.

Medical Men Told of Possible New Discovery

Medical men attending a regional meeting of the American College of Physicians here were today offered a lead towards the investigation of certain intestinal diseases.

Dr. Bernard J. Haverback, assistant professor of medicine at USC reported at the Palm Springs conference that an Italian doctor has isolated a substance that might have a disease-carrying factor.

THE SUBSTANCE is serotonin, a powerful natural chemical that apparently stimulates intestinal contraction and movement.

Dr. Haverback noted that some patients unable to properly absorb their food were found to have a derangement of the normal metabolism of serotonin.

DR. HAVERBROOK also reported that the chemical has also been found in brain tissues and may have a role in the mental processes.

"At the present time," he said, "the role that this potent, naturally-occurring substance may have in diseases of the gastro-intestinal tract is being investigated."

Office Closed By Jeanette Constantino

PALM DESERT — Jeanette Constantino yesterday announced that she has resigned her post as a clerical aide for the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce and will also curtail her other business pursuits.

Her secretarial office at the Palm Desert Center is being closed immediately, she said.

Miss Constantino is referring typing work to Mrs. Emma Jane Ames at 73-168 Highway 111 and mimeograph work to Marian Harris of Services, Unlimited.

Last night's Rodeo Ball... and today's parade and Rodeo... bring a more-than-usual western atmosphere to town... Tonight is the big Presidents and Eighth Anniversary Party out at Thunderbird... and tomorrow night the new high school auditorium will be packed with ballet fans... Sandwiched in between all this activity will be numerous private parties in the homes and the clubs and restaurants... to make this a busy, busy weekend...

Like tonight's cocktail party at the Herman Ridders' Santa Rosa home... which will honor Rodeo Queen Barbara Stanwyck and Grand Marsha Robert Horton of "Wagon Train"...

It isn't logical at all... with all this activity at home... but this is the weekend I'm flying to Las Vegas to check on what goes on around town in LV...

When I called Noonie (Mrs. Joe) Hall to ask what's going on at the Sahara... I found out she was there and was flying back today just about the time I'm leaving here...

She's coming back especially for the party which her sister Bobby Perlberg is giving tonight... and when Bobby and Bill (he's the Perlberg half of Perlberg-Seaton Productions) give a party it's worth coming to from across country...

Tonight's will be an informal buffet... but the guests are the thing... It will honor Lilli Palmer (the former Mrs. Rex Harrison, who's in the new Clark Gable film a P-S production) and her husband polo player Carlos Thompson of Argentina...

Guests will include the Bing Crosby's, Frank Sinatra and Lady Adele Beatty (she's here for the weekend), Alpe Faye and Phil Harris (all America was watching them on TV last night)... the Buddy Adlers, Harry Karl and Joan Cohn, Spyros Skouras... the Gar Moores, the Dennis Crosby's, William Edrises, Jimmy Van Heusen... and, of course, Noonie and Joe Hall... and probably several others...

Grace Pope is back at the Desert Inn for her annual winter stay... and her friend Claire Windsor came down with her for the Rodeo weekend... I think Grace is arriving a little later than usual... due to the fine weather in Beverly... but she loves Palm Springs and unless she's off on a cruise somewhere... she heads for the desert every winter...

Eva Gabor is in the Village this weekend too... Here for a visit with Marna Jolie... before heading for Spain... where she'll make a picture for MGM...

Due to arrive here next week are the Doyle Cottons (she's the former Jere Kellard)... who have leased the Al Hunt home on San Lorenzo (Al and Nellis are busy settling into their new house in Holmby Hills and aren't with us this winter)...

The Cottons are motoring across country from Tulsa... Ray Ryan and Bill Holden... who are on safari in Africa... have shot their first elephants... and are beginning to think of coming home... They will be in Rome on February 10... and expect to reach Palm Springs around the 20th... Ray wants to be here for the formal opening of the new Bermuda Dunes golf course on March 1...

Sydney Schiff who joined his wife Evelyn at their Racquet Club bungalow before Christmas... has started his annual commuting... between Palm Springs and Chicago... He flew east Thursday...

Harold Jacobs "Camera Around the World" which is causing excitement in the book world... is being widely recognized as one of the best books of its type... and was reviewed on Art Linkletter's program the other evening... Jacobs is a frequent Palm Springs visitor with many friends here...

The Gene Kegleys of Beverly are here as houseguests of Viola Morse of 1645 South Sunrise... Ruth is recuperating from a pre-Christmas auto accident... Viola is also expecting other guests this coming week...

Mrs. E. F. Sparl of Nashville is arriving the first of the week... and may decide to buy a home here... and Dr. and Mrs. John Hamilton of New York City are expected within a few days...

For Las Vegas Confidential... see Tuesday's column.

Comedy Coming to Playhouse

The bright, risqué comedy "The Tunnel of Love" opens Tuesday night at the Palm Springs Playhouse. This happy show, directed by Michael Ferrall, stars John Newton with James Pritchett, Toni Gerry, Betty Caulfield, Phyllis Flax and introduces Sandy Warner. Concerning a happily married but childless young couple, "Tunnel of Love" takes you through the rigors and red tape of trying to adopt a baby.

As the prospective father, John Newton vividly portrays the joy, confusion and bewilderment of all caught in the process of parenthood. As his 'expectant' wife, Toni Gerry gives another outstanding performance. James Pritchett, who has just finished a successful run in "Auntie Mame" with Silvia Sidney, turns in an excellent performance as does Betty Caulfield who plays his wife.

Phyllis Flax, who can always be counted on for a fine portrayal, adds another memorable performance to her credits. "Tunnel of Love" introduces Sandy Warner to Palm Springs Playhouse audiences. No novice in the theatre, Miss Warner has just finished a role in "Some Like It Hot" with Marilyn Monroe and can also be seen in the forthcoming "Ask Any Girl" starring David Niven.

For reservations and information, please call FA 5-6189.

The First Nighter dinner will be held at Chi Chi on Tuesday, February 10, preceding the opening performance, with Mrs. Robert C. Morrey acting as hostess. For reservations, please call the Guild office, FA 5-2204.

Valentine Dinner Dance at Chi Chi February 15th

The Valentine Dinner Dance, annual benefit for St. Theresa School, will be held at Chi Chi Starlite Room on the evening of February 15 at 7 p.m.

The committee under the chairmanship of B. J. Sanchez, is hard at work to make this year's affair bigger and better than last year, when Bing Crosby and Frank Sinatra entertained an overflow audience.

Working with Mrs. Sanchez is a committee composed of Mmes. Phil Harris, C. B. Hinkle, Charles Farrell, E. A. Young and Clarke Swanson.

Alice Faye and Phil Harris, Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz are arranging for the program, which will be emceed by Phil Harris, as was last year's.

Already programmed is Donald O'Connor, straight from Las Vegas, with his hour-long review, and Murray Arnold and Pepe Callahan from Howard Manor.

Several other of the biggest names in show business have been invited to take part in this stellar production, as they have in previous years.

Tickets may be secured by calling FA 5-2902 and having them delivered. An unusual number of early reservations are already in, and it seems certain that this year's benefit will be another sell-out.

Mrs. Sanchez will have the following guests at her table: Dr. and Mrs. James Oliver, Messrs. and Mmes. Paul Reynolds, Les Callahan, Jr., S. P. Manasse, Howard Cook, William Tevis, Mmes. Ben Gale, Thomas B. Davis, Messrs. Leo Owens, Ed McCoubrey, Pierre Bouscaren.

The Phil Harris table will include the Robert Walkers, Claude Valeurs, Bill Kenastons and Bill Worthing.

Guests of the Harry Joe Browns will be Messrs. and Mmes. Stewart Hoppe, William Bassichis, and Mrs. Dorothy Ecker.

At the Ralph Singers' table will be the Chauncey Needhams, Joe Dyers, Earl Buckinghams and J.

Ross Clarkes. With the Clarke Swansons will be the W. T. Mahoneys, Everett Kelloways, Ralph Waycotts, Ted Millers, Kenneth Merediths, Peter Kiewitts.

The Williams Maloufs will host a party including the George Irvins and Harold Coopers.

At the Barney Hinkles' table will be Messrs. and Mmes. Lou Manseau, Kent Hayes, L. L. Oakes, Eric Stainton, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eichers' guests will be Messrs. and Mmes. Sal Alessandro, Howard Haddock, Robert White, Louis Clemens, Rex Santoro; the Co Thorntons have invited the Frank Hoys, Jack Blighs, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hutchens, the Fred Karlens and Frank Benders.

Hurried Cooks Find This Easy

Italia, supper casserole is a quick and easy one-dish meal. Melt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine in skillet. Stir in 1-3 cups packaged pre-cooked rice and 1/2 pound ground beef. Cook, stirring constantly, until browned. Remove from heat, stir in 1 envelope Italian style spaghetti sauce mix, 1 1/2 cups hot water and 2 (3-ounce) cans tomato sauce. Return to heat, bring to boil, reduce heat, and simmer 5 minutes, stirring frequently. Or bake in 1 1/2 quart casserole 15 to 20 minutes in 350 degree oven. Serves 6.

THERE'S AN INTERNATIONAL and cosmopolitan group of people to be found watching the polo matches at Eldorado Country Club each Sunday afternoon, like this threesome. That's Dick Neville (an original member of Eldorado and a home owner there, he is also a Polo Club member and is learning to play polo) on the left; Rowena Dorrough, in the center, lives in Los Angeles, but comes from France; Stanley Anderson, on right, is of London and Los Angeles. All polo enthusiasts, they will probably be in the audience tomorrow afternoon for the charity Polo match between San Francisco and LaJolla Rancho at 2 p. m.

HOSTESSES at the annual Valentine Luncheon, which St. Theresa Mothers Club held at the Huddle-Springs, expressed their gratitude to all who had assisted in making the affair such a success, and hearts on the branches bore the names of local business firms contributing door prizes. From left, the pretty quartet of hostesses are: Patty Higgins, Alice Hough, Mary Sitter and Norma Smith.

St. Theresa Mothers Club Has Annual Valentine Luncheon

Red hearts and bows decorated the sprigs of desert smoke tree used as center pieces for the annual Valentine luncheon of the St. Theresa's Mother's Club. One hundred and seventy attended to enjoy the delicious buffet in the patio at the Huddle Springs Restaurant. Background music was furnished by the Guadalajara Trio. Bob Miles, a new young singer, was introduced and sang several selections among them, "Angel Smiles" and "Send For Me."

Climaxing the program was a fashion show. Father O'Donohue announced the Annual Valentine Dinner Dance to be held at the Chi Chi, Sunday, Feb. 15. This is the one charity function of the year that is arranged by St. Theresa's Catholic Church and features an evening of fabulous entertainment. Luncheon committee included Alice Hough, Mary Sitter, Pat Higgins and Norma Smith. Hostesses were Lorretta Bergeron, Mary Marinko, Ruth White, Mary Conway, Dorothy Floyd, Emily Rech and Dorothy Bartko.

Special Script Sets Theme for Buccino Shower

"This is your life," a script prepared (with apologies) by hostess Esther Weingarten, turned a board of directors meeting of the Soroptimist Club of Palm Springs into a surprise baby shower for Anita Buccino.

Members assembled early at the Via Altamira home of the Weingartens and from clues in the script Anita identified each member, who then entered the living room and presented a shower gift. An enormous stork was the center decoration on a yellow and white refreshment table.

Presidents Party at Thunderbird

It will be another festive evening out at Thunderbird tomorrow night when Club members and their guests celebrate the annual Presidents' Day and their Eighth Anniversary, with president Kent Hayes guest of honor.

The Anniversary Ball will be formal and the clubhouse will be decorated in the club colors of turquoise, brown and white. Ruby Moss and his orchestra will play for the dinner dancing for this gala event which is in charge of a committee headed by Ruth Manseau. Assisting her will be Mmes. Kay Obergel, Trudy Reynolds and Alta Roberson.

Soroptimists Start YWCA Survey

Representatives of all phases of community activity, including churches, service clubs, P-T-A Chamber of Commerce, school district, and press were present at this week's luncheon meeting of Soroptimist International of Palm Springs held at the Biltmore hotel, when the possibility of establishing a YWCA here was discussed.

The group of interested citizens had been invited there to hear Miss Evelyn M. Nossel, field staff member of the San Francisco bureau of the National YWCA.

Soroptimist president Elsa Ades presided at the meeting and welcomed the guests who joined with the club in this preliminary study of the community need for a YWCA.

"The Y.W.C.A. is an organization of girls and women with a Christian purpose and is over 100 years old. With over 500 associations in communities in the United States and 70 associations in countries and territories around the world, the Y.W.C.A. was originally founded to provide a safe place for young women to live," Mrs. Nossel told the group. "Today," she stated, "the most important project is the Teenagers Group, comprising definite programs of activities for girls from the 7th grade through High School."

"What are the needs in the fast growing community of Palm Springs that a Y.W.C.A. can help solve?" Mrs. Martins asked the group, which opened a question and answer forum interesting to the 56 members and guests.

"A Y.W.C.A. project is not an immediate accomplishment," Miss Nossel concluded. "It there is a need, ground work must be laid, surveys made and a program arranged that may take several years."

Speaking on the procedure necessary to form a new organization Miss Nossel said the first stage would be to select a group of 10 to 15 women volunteers to study the needs of the community and discover in what way YWCA could be of the greatest service. This exploratory stage should include research and evaluation to correct interpretation of these needs and consultation with other groups to avoid duplication of programs. It would also be necessary to find an agency to underwrite the bulk of the financial support, for a YWCA is not self-supporting, Miss Nossel advised.

The second stage is the formal organization; incorporation, adoption of a budget, election of officers and program planning, after that a club is in a pre-affiliation stage for three years before applying for a charter.

A question and answer session followed with Miss Grace F. Martins, assistant executive of the Community Division of the National YWCA, joining in this discussion period. The meeting concluded with the guests advised to deliver the message to their various organizations for general study before further steps are undertaken.

Among those in attendance were: Jimmy Cooper, Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Jacqueline Moe, and Mrs. Muriel Dewey, P-T-A; Mrs. Virgie Dragovich, Business Women's Club; Mrs. Glenn Austin, WAF's; Charles McDonald, president, Lions Club; Thurman Arnold, vice-president, and Bob McWhirter, Kiwanis; Hazel Critchlow, B and PW Club; Mrs. Don Williams, president, Junior Women's Club; Bobbie Nye, Altrusa Club; LaVaun Belt, Credit Women's Breakfast Club; Charles Valentino, Optimist Club; Lorna Little, Community Church; Lois Nowlin, co-ordinator for the school district; Mrs. Mildred Paul, Cabuilla D.A.R.; Joan Wyman, Soroptimist Club of Coachella Valley; Mrs. Ray Littleton, Soroptimist Club of Beverly Hills; and Viola Bajus, Marilyn Snedeker, Wanda Kennedy, Dr. Marian Zennis, Irene Florine, Marta Scott, Dianne Bucine, William Coffin and Marion Turner.

Shower Given for Mrs. Mersch

A corsage fashioned of tiny white baby socks made into roses, with a miniature baby in the center of each rose, was presented to Mrs. C. J. Mersch, when she was honored at a baby shower Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Marty Johnson, 30643 San Gabriel circle. The shower was co-hosted by Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Ross Dille.

Guests attending from Palm Springs were Mesdames Douglas Doss, John Gossett, Hy Ranes, Wayne Huffman, Warren Slaughter, Al Taylor, Gwen Ross and Miss Arlene Taylor. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. J. W. Orebaugh of La Puente, Mrs. C. D. Andersen, Jr., of Ontario.

A lacy pink baby shawl served as a cloth for the buffet table with the centerpiece an ornamental tree sprayed silver and decorated with pink and lavender satin bows and flowers and miniature baby articles, and baby dolls nesting in egg shell cradles lined with lavender net.

Petit fours topped with pink and blue booties, ice cream cubes, mints, nuts and coffee were served as refreshments.

Gifts were presented to the honoree in a bassinet which was a gift from Mrs. Herman Salk who could not attend.

Lubricating RR Wheels

PHILADELPHIA — (UPI) — The Reading Railroad says the use of a new "dry" lubricant on the wheels of locomotives will provide "more efficient, more economical, and safer operation of trains."

The Reading says it has reduced the wear and tear on its curved rails by 35 per cent through the use of a chemical preparation called molybdenum disulfide applied by a solid lubricating stick attached to the wheel flanges of locomotives.

The Reading began testing the wear on curved tracks in 1964. It has made experiments on a 35-mile stretch of track with 150 curves.

Sandpiper Own-Your-Own Apartments Open Unit Two

New Models Open Today In Palm Desert!

Carefree living is the theme . . .

Drive out to the Sandpiper this week-end and see this wonderful new way of carefree desert living. Your own 2-bedroom, 2 bath apartment, with complete upkeep including maid and linen service . . . and with each unit around pool, putting greens and play area. To see the new Sandpiper models go straight through Palm Springs on Highway 111 (Palm Canyon Drive) to Palm Desert—just minutes away. Then turn at the Palms-to-Pines Highway to the Sandpiper and the models. Open daily from 9:00 to 7:00.

Grand opening this week-end of the newest model of the exciting Sandpiper own-your-own apartments in Palm Desert! And, along with the newest Sandpiper model, a brand new unit opens—the Second Unit with occupancy ready for you within a few weeks . . . just in time to enjoy the desert at its best!

The Sandpiper is an entirely new way of desert living!

The ultimate for you who like luxury without upkeep . . . who like the restful relaxation in the sun or pool, or who enjoy barbecues, putting greens, neighborhood get-togethers and all of the other advantages of living the Sandpiper way!

Here in beautiful Palm Desert your Sandpiper two-bedroom, two-bath apartment is built around a central pool and play area with putting green, flower beds, tropical landscaping, private sun patios . . . all of the things that you enjoy . . . and all without a care. Maintenance, maid and linen service are also available at the Sandpiper to make living here really carefree . . . really fun—whether it be for week-ends, the season, or year-round!

Ideal financing too!

Come out this week-end and see the new furnished model by Vee Nisley . . . visit the first unit and see how really wonderful, how really exciting desert living can be!

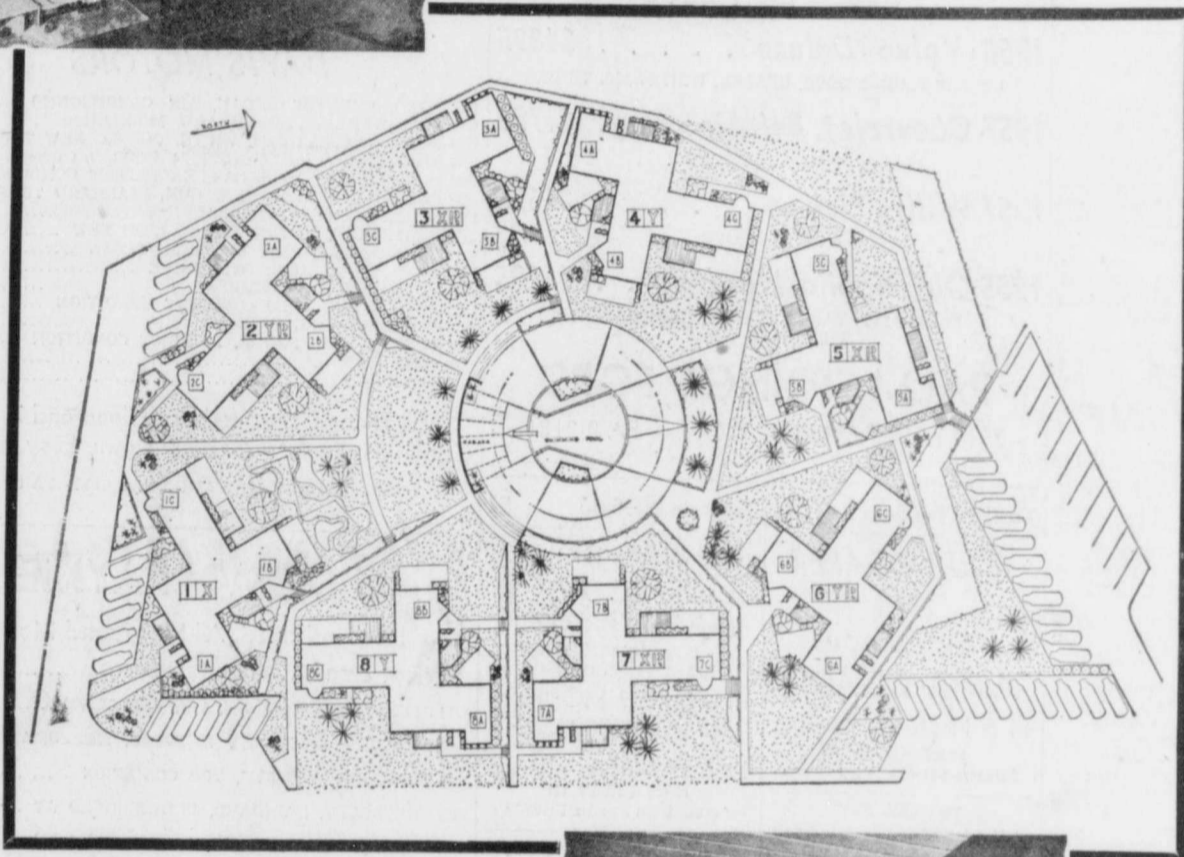

Two-bedroom, two-bath Sandpiper garden apartments sell for $21,500 including built-in kitchen, full refrigeration and upkeep. Excellent financing means a Sandpiper Apartment can also be an ideal investment!

Play area in the center of each tropically landscaped apartment group includes a giant heated Hoams Pool, barbeque lanai, and putting green. Hoams of Rancho Mirage—the desert's leading quality pool contractors, have created a brand new pool design for the Sandpiper's second unit . . . and the nearby covered barbeque area is ideal for entertaining, the informal desert way, by day or night. Underground utility and complete sprinkling system by Moist-O-Matic keep garden and landscaping fresh as an oasis without a care.

Three beautiful furnished Sandpiper models by famed desert decorator Vee Nisley of Rancho Mirage, will be open today at the Sandpiper in Palm Desert. You'll love the clever use of new desert colors . . . the space, and rich decor in every single room of all three of the Sandpiper models. Buyers may also take advantage of the complete decor and furnishing package offered by Vee Nisley and associates at the Sandpiper . . . it means you can buy and move into your own complete Sandpiper apartment within a few weeks.

Sandpiper Combines Good Design with Luxury and Quality

Designed by Palmer and Krisel, A.I.A., the nation's foremost desert architects and winners of a dozen national awards, nothing has been spared at the Sandpiper to incorporate beauty, utility, quality construction and good taste.

Built by long-time Southland custom home builders, George M. Holstein and Sons only the best of materials and the leading sub-contractors were included at the Sandpiper.

The cleverly designed walks and patios were installed by Hicks and Allred of Cathedral City with the "shadow design" sound proof decorative masonry walls created by the master craftsmen of Gallerani Inc., Palm Springs. Both of these subcontractors have been responsible for scores of luxury homes in the desert region and their talents were a must for Sandpiper.

Ryan and Ryan, general contractors, were engaged to carefully frame and do finished carpentry on each apartment and barbeque lanai—and the selection proved a wise one . . . not only for expert workmanship, but for the meticulous care of finish work.

Inside the garden homes were plastered by Buddy B. Lasater—a custom plastering contractor from Hemet whose skills were ideal for Sandpiper. In the three different type Sandpiper medallion kitchens, the craftsmen of the Indo Paint and Rug Center of Indo were called upon to add the easy-to-care-for FORMICA KITCHENS and PULLMAN TOPS and VINYL floors in kitchen and bath.

Each apartment is fully refrigerated and heated with big three-ton Holly units and expertly installed by the desert's leading plumbing and heating contractor, Halls of Palm Desert. The baths and kitchen were also part of the plumbers responsibility and Hall and Sandpiper both agreed that American Standard colored fixtures were the ultimate for those who demand the best.

The important phases of electric and roofing were placed in the capable and experienced hands of Hammer Electric, Palm Springs, and Desert Roof of Palm Springs. Desert Roof also did the extensive insulation of each unit while Halls skilled electricians installed the all-electric Medallion kitchen and the thousands of dollars worth of garden and pool lighting. Along with the beauty of the pool area, Lido Terrazzo of Palm Springs completed the party area, with the luxurious black and white terrazzo ramada floor—ideal for dancing and entertaining and built for a lifetime of wear by the terrazzo experts of the desert!

The outstanding design, plus the skilled contributions of these sub-contractors have all combined to make Sandpiper not only the most beautiful, but one of the most successful of all desert retreats!

To make the carefree living of the Sandpiper complete, the dependability and beauty of the all-electric kitchen was a must. It was also natural, that the famous name of Westinghouse be included. In each Sandpiper apartment you will find the color matched Westinghouse electric range, oven and the big family-size refrigerator . . . and at each entry the bronze medallion—your assurance of dependable electric living for today and tomorrow. We are proud to say Sandpiper owners "live better electrically".

Westinghouse Electric Kitchens Earn Sandpiper Medallion Award

See the Westinghouse medallion kitchens in the Sandpiper models this week-end. Go straight thru Palm Springs on Highway 111 (Palm Canyon Drive) to Palm Desert just past Thunderbird Golf Course. In Palm Desert turn at Palms-to-Pines Highway to the models.
